

Top 10 Jira Interview Questions

Author - Kanwar Dusaj

Kanwar Dusaj \(Angad\) | LinkedIn

a) You work in a Scrum project and have trouble tracking deadlines.

You want to see a view that shows:

1. current issues in progress
2. a linear timeline of work being completed
3. dependencies and overlap among issues

Suggest the best type of work view for you -

Ans - RoadMap - If enabled for your team, the roadmap shows issues in a linear timeline, including dependencies and overlap among issues.

b) Two types of boards you can create within Jira -

Ans - Scrum and Kanban

c) Your HR team manages various categories of work in their project:

1. requests from employees
2. job applications
3. updates to salary and benefits

What are these categories called in Jira?

Ans - Subtasks

d) Issue TEST-123 has a parent issue and cannot exist on its own.

What is the issue type of TEST-123?

Ans - Sub-task

e) You have completed your portion of the work on an issue and want to move it along in the workflow.

Which action should you take?

Ans - Assign the issue to a reviewer.

f) You want to create multiple issues at one time for a particular project.

Identify two quick ways to do so

Ans - by linking issues

by cloning issues

g) What is the quickest way to get feedback from someone ?

Ans - Add a comment and @mention his/her name

h) Everyone on your team uses the same dashboard.

Two of the gadgets will definitely show different results to different team members.

Identify those gadgets

Ans) Created vs. Resolved Chart

Assigned to Me

i) You frequently run a particular search and want to mark it for easy access. How can you achieve this within Jira?

Ans) save and star the filter

j) Identify the correct configuration of a board that accurately represents their process with a minimum number of columns in the correct order.

Open, In Progress, Awaiting Review, Done

More JIRA articles -

Stats and Insights < IT Quality Den — WordPress.com